

Neighbour arrested for killing minor had joined search party looking for her: Gujarat Police

Express News Service
Ahmedabad, November 14

AFTER THE body of a minor girl who went missing two days ago was found stuffed in a bag in Gandhinagar district, the Gujarat police on Friday said it detained four suspects and one of them admitted to the murder, leading to his arrest. The police said the arrested accused, 36, was a neighbour of the victim.

A statement issued by the police on Friday said the girl's parents went out for work on November 12, leaving their son and daughter at home.

By the time they returned, their daughter had gone missing and they filed a police complaint. A team of around 40 Police and Home Guard personnel soon began a search for the girl on the streets as well as through technical means and human intelligence.

On November 12 night, an additional 40 personnel were deployed to search for the girl. A drone was also deployed but to no avail.

After nearly 36 hours, on the night of November 13, the police received information that the body of the girl had been found stuffed in a gunny bag, in an open space near her home. Senior police officers reached the spot. After identification of the body, the nature of the investigation changed - from the search for a missing girl to the hunt for her murderer.

The forensics laboratory deployed a fingerprinting team and the police's dog Squad was also called in. Investigators from the Local Crime Branch (LCB) and Special Operations Group (SOG) were also called into the case. The body was sent for post-mortem and Additional Superintendent of Police (ASP) Ayush Jain of Dahegam Division said the post mortem results would ascertain if the victim had been sexually assaulted.

The police rounded up neighbours and suspicious persons and began interrogation. They trimmed the list down to four persons, ASP Jain had told The Indian Express on Friday.

Delhi Crime Branch officer among three booked in graft case

Express News Service
Ahmedabad, November 14

THE GUJARAT Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) on Friday said it booked three persons, including an officer with the Crime Branch of the Delhi Police, for demanding a bribe of Rs 80 lakh and allegedly accepting an advance payment of Rs 10 lakh in lieu of discharging an accused in a criminal investigation and not disclosing documents in a case.

The police identified the accused as Assistant Sub-Inspector (ASI) Shivkumar of the Crime Branch, Delhi, Chitresh Bhupendra Sutaria and Sanjay Patel, both residents of Ahmedabad.

A statement issued by the ACB on Friday said that the complainant in the case works as a visa consultant. On July 29, while he was in his office on C G Road, the Crime Branch of Delhi Police "raided" the premises. The office and the complainant's vehicle were searched and two laptops and two printers and a total of 17 passports, wallet, Aadhaar card, ATM card, driving licence, voter ID, PAN card, two cheque books and Rs 20,000 were seized from the office.

After that, the complainant and the owner of the firm were taken to Navrangpura Police Station on the charge that the complainant's name had been revealed as a co-accused in an FIR registered by the Delhi Crime Branch.

The statement said, "Meanwhile, ASI Shivkumar called his friend Sanjay Patel and the owner of "Om Global Tours" called his friend Chitresh Sutaria. Both Chitresh Sutaria and Sanjay Patel knew each other from earlier. After that, both of them intervened and immediately released the complainant and the owner of "Om Global Tours", and ASI Shivkumar gave notice to the complainant and the firm owner to appear at the Delhi location to record their statements."

After that, the complainant went to Delhi and met ASI Shivkumar, who allegedly initially demanded a bribe of Rs 1 crore from the complainant in exchange for not revealing his name as an accused in the case and for returning the original documents seized by the Crime Branch. The complainant was further allegedly asked to speak to Chitresh Sutaria and Sanjay Patel regarding the bribe.

The ACB statement said that following these discussions, Sutaria and Patel repeatedly kept demanding that the complainant pay the bribe amount, "but the complainant did not have such a large amount of money, so he could not."

Subsequently, the Delhi Crime Branch revealed the name of the complainant as a co-accused in their case and declared him a fugitive. However, the ACB said, "The Delhi Crime Branch filed a chargesheet in their case, but the documents seized from the complainant were not mentioned in the chargesheet."

Then, the three accused allegedly demanded Rs 80 lakh from the complainant in lieu of removing his name from the chargesheet, and returning the original documents to him, of which Rs 10 lakh was to be paid in advance and the remaining money was to be paid after the original documents were returned and his name as a fugitive accused was removed from the chargesheet.

However, the complainant, instead, approached the Gujarat ACB and filed a complaint, which led to Inspector S N Barot, Field-3, ACB Ahmedabad, setting a trap in the Paldi area of Ahmedabad, where the transaction was supposed to take place in a car. "Chitresh Sutaria had a purposeful conversation with the complainant and was caught red-handed while accepting the bribe amount," said ACB.

Rope snaps during bungee jumping in Rishikesh; one hurt

Express News Service
Dehradun, November 14

A 23-YEAR-OLD man was critically injured after he fell off the rope while bungee jumping in Rishikesh.

The incident took place around 4 pm on Wednesday, when Sonu, who is from Gurgaon, fell from a height of around 35 metres while bungee jumping at Shivpuri Thrill Factory, an adventure sports park. He sustained injuries to his chest and was admitted to AIIMS Rishikesh.

Police said he has responded to treatment and is out of danger. Since no complaint has been lodged by the family yet, police said they are yet to file an FIR.

Officers of Muni Ki Reti police station in Uttarakhand's Tehri Garhwal said they have called in a technical team to investigate the reason for the fall.

"We are finding out if it was caused due to the negligence of the operator or the machine. We will check if the firm is complying with all norms," an officer said.

A video that has gone viral shows the man writhing in pain on a tin sheet as the rope remains suspended in the air.

The Shivpuri Thrill Factory offers several adventure sports, including rope cycling, suspended catch air device (SCAD) jump, and reverse bungee jumping.

The firm did not respond to calls seeking comment on the matter. Police said they will record statements of the victim after treatment. Meanwhile, police have demanded that the firm suspend its activities and again seek clearance from authorities.

"Apart from clearances and No Objection Certificates, we have also asked them to undertake an audit from a competent technical team and seek their approval for operating again," said investigating officer Vinod Sharma.
